MEET “COOKIE”: THE NEWEST MEMBER OF THE RIVERSIDE FAMILY

Animals, and specifically dogs, have long been recognized as having a positive influence on people’s health and the healing process in multiple settings including hospitals, nursing homes and funeral homes. Why not a Cemetery?

Riverside Cemetery is pleased to introduce “Cookie”. She is an 11-month-old-mix adopted from the Berea Animal Rescue. She is in training to be a therapy dog for the Cemetery and will take her certification test after she is a year old. As a therapy dog Cookie will be available for anyone visiting or making arrangements at the Cemetery who wants or needs some unconditional love and affection from a furry friend.

Cookie lives with our General Manager, Greg Kapcar and his wife Sally. When she’s at home Cookie enjoys long walks in the park, playing “soccer”, sitting at the front door watching all the activity go by, and napping in the sun.

Until she is certified, Cookie is getting accustomed to the office environment and seeing everyone who comes to the counter. Stop in and say “hello!”

From the Grounds...

The fall foliage and colors were especially magnificent this year. In case you were not able to visit the grounds to witness the vibrant colors, we have included some pictures below for your viewing pleasure.

Our semi-annual clearing of decorations took place October 15th. Any items you place on graves from this point forward will remain until March 1, 2015. If you wish to keep any items, be sure to remove them before March 1st. Please remember there is a limit of three decorative items per grave. This policy has been in place for decades and is intended to keep the Cemetery looking clean and respectable. Clearing of unsightly and over-populated decorations is ongoing and can be done before the posted clean-off dates. If you have any questions about decorations and clean-off, contact the Main Office at 216-351-4800.

You may have noticed newly planted bushes in Sections 30 and 31. While we adore the family of deer that frequent the grounds, several years ago they decided to nibble on the Taxus shrubs in these Sections. After some tender loving care, it became obvious the shrubs were too damaged to bounce back. As part of a multi-phased, Cemetery-wide beautification plan, we started replacing the shrubs in Sections 30 and 31 with “deer-resistant” winter boxwoods. The boxwoods have proven to be hearty in other areas of the Cemetery and provide year-round greenery. We hope the deer read the memo that they are not supposed to like this variety of boxwood. To the families who have loved ones buried in Sections 30 & 31, we appreciate your patience with the work in this area and thank you for the positive feedback about our efforts to maintain the attractive appearance of our Cemetery.

Safety Reminders: NO Glass, Porcelain, or Rock decorations of any kind. These items are very dangerous to our crew and visitors when mowing and trimming. For the same safety reasons, we do not permit fencing/borders. Please observe the posted speed limit of 15 miles an hour (or less) at all times and especially during the winter months as our crew diligently work to keep roads and sidewalks passable and as clear as possible of snow and ice. Thank you!

The Stonecutter
A Chinese Fable

There was once a stonecutter, who was dissatisfied with himself and with his position in life.

One day, he passed a wealthy merchant's house, and through the open gateway, saw many fine possessions and important visitors. "How powerful that merchant must be!" thought the stonecutter. He became very envious, and wished that he could be like the merchant. Then he would no longer have to live the life of a mere stonecutter.

To his great surprise, he suddenly became the merchant, enjoying more luxuries and power than he had ever dreamed of, envied and detested by those less wealthy than himself. But soon a high official passed by, carried in a sedan chair, accompanied by attendants, and escorted by soldiers beating gongs. Everyone, no matter how wealthy, had to bow low before the procession. "How powerful that official is!" he thought. "I wish that I could be a high official!"

Then he became the sun, shining fiercely down on everyone, scorching the fields, cursed by the farmers and laborers. But a huge black cloud moved between him and the earth, so that his light could no longer shine on everything below. "How powerful that storm cloud is!" he thought. "I wish that I could be a cloud!"

Then he became the cloud, flooding the fields and villages, shouted at by everyone. But soon he found that he was being pushed away by some great force, and realized that it was the wind. "How powerful it is!" he thought. "I wish that I could be the wind!"

Then he became the wind, blowing tiles off the roofs of houses, uprooting trees, hated and feared by all below him. But after a while, he ran up against something that would not move, no matter how forcefully he blew against it — a huge, towering stone. "How powerful that stone is!" he thought. "I wish that I could be a stone!" he thought. "I wish that I could be a stone!"

Then he became the stone, more powerful than anything else on earth. But as he stood there, he heard the sound of a hammer pounding a chisel into the solid rock, and felt himself being changed. "What could be more powerful than I, the stone?" he thought. He looked down and saw far below him the figure of a stonecutter.
